Read Aloud
15 MINUTES
Every child. Every parent. Every day.

Does reading aloud really matter? YES!

Research shows that reading aloud is the single most important thing you can do to help a child prepare for reading and learning.

More than one in three children arrive at kindergarten without the skills necessary for lifetime learning.

The number of words that a child knows on entering kindergarten is a key predictor of his or her future success.

Instill a love of reading
Your example demonstrates that reading is important, pleasurable and valued.

Knowledge gained & shared
Books are a pleasure, yes, and they are also informative. You and your child can learn something new as you read aloud.

Don’t good parents already read aloud daily? NO

Only 48% of young children in this country are read to each day.

More than 15% of young children, 3.1 million, are read to by family members fewer than three times a week.
