

READ ALOUD

ANYTIME, ANYWHERE!

Reading is more than just making sense of words on a page – it's an adventure!

Reading aloud can be done anytime and anywhere. It is the perfect opportunity to expose your child to new vocabulary, sounds, and questions.

AT THE SUPERMARKET

Reading the labels and signs helps your child learn the sounds associated with their favorite foods.

"A" for Apple.
"B" for Banana.
"C" for Carrots.

AT THE ZOO

Expand your child's knowledge by reading the animal identification signs. Learn facts about the animal's habitat, diet and life span.

Orangutan Primate

The orangutans are three extant species of great apes native to Indonesia and Malaysia. Orangutans are currently only found in the rainforests of Borneo and Sumatra. Classified in the genus Pongo, orangutans were originally considered to be one species.

AT AN EVENT

When you have many things in the air, and feel like there isn't enough time, read what you see around you. It all adds up.
