

Stories Through Time

Help the pigeon find the way back home!

Carrier Pigeons

START

In ancient times, pigeons carried news between cities. During World War I and World War II, they delivered messages when phones and radios failed. They can find their way home from hundreds of miles away, and today they are still trained as racing pigeons.