DID YOU KNOW?

By age 4, children whose parents talk to them frequently may have heard 30 million more words than peers whose parents speak to them less often.

Help close the “word gap” by reading aloud every day. Reading aloud introduces new words, grammar and concepts that you may not use during regular speech. An average children’s picture book may have around 500 words. These add up fast!

DR. JOHN S. HUTTON
Pediatrician & Research Fellow
Cincinnati Children’s Hospital

Learn more at ReadAloud.org